

WELCOME ALL NON-FOOD VENDORS FOR ALBUQUERQUE FOLK FESTIVAL 2013

[Food vendors should contact Mickey Burtonshaw in Linda Hubley's office – 505-768-6028]

The AFF 2013 will be held on Saturday, June 1, 2013 at the Albuquerque Balloon Museum Park from 9:30 a.m. till 11:00 p.m. Following you will find a vendor application and an aerial view of the Museum and grounds.

The park can be reached from Route I-25 in Albuquerque using the westbound Alameda exit 8/10 of a mile to Balloon Museum Drive. Turn right (north) and continue to Museum entrance in front of the building. You can park in front of building or in large area to the west of the building, beyond which is a camping area available to all free of charge. The park will open at 4:30 p.m. on Friday evening for early setup.

On Saturday from 7:30 to 9:30 a.m. the vendor entrance on the EAST side of the Museum will be available for unloading. All cars must be off the field by 9:30 a.m. A few indoor spaces are available first-come, first-serve. When filled, an outside space will be assigned and fees will be adjusted. The 3 music stages are set up among vendor and food areas for best possible traffic for all.

Please return the application postmarked by April 12, 2013 to me at the address shown on application. Please enclose a check for the space and any equipment you wish us to provide for you, payable to ALBUQUERQUE FOLK FESTIVAL.

All vendors are welcome to display on Sunday at the Blues Festival in any available outside space only, at no additional cost. Sunday activities are under the direction of Blues Festival, not AFF

Camping and parking are provided free of charge.

Looking forward to another great festival at the Balloon Museum!
