

Storyteller Program: September 29, 2024

Storytellers, Folklorists, Spoken Word Artists, and Traditional Culture Keepers
All sharing their tales!

Title, Name, Email	Program Description	Photo
Half Wolf... Half Snake Dianne Rossbach rossbachd@msn.com storytellersofnewmexico.org/directory 10:30 am – 11:15 am	A tale of mystical creatures, Bosque born, in the Year of the Wood Dragon, seeking meaning in a prophecy. The characters live mostly in the shadows. Watch out! Join me for a “first” morning stories ceremony. I’m saving you a seat! Spoken word artist, naturalist, lover of tall tales, and fantasy adventure teller.
Desert Home Companion: Live! Jay Cutts orders@cuttsreviews.com https://cuttsbooks.wordpress.com/desert-home-companion/ 11:30 am – 12:15 pm	Jay’s Live, Olde Tyme radio-style show features original humorous and poignant stories and music that will tease your imagination and tickle your ears. This show includes “news”, sound effects, short skits, and musical interludes. Author, musician, teller, Director, Cutts Graduate Reviews
Connecting to the Heart Lucinda de Lorimier lsdlorimier@gmail.com storytellersofnewmexico.org/directory 12:30 pm – 1:15pm	Love and loss... powerful themes in folklore for centuries. For some, love stories form the basis of traditional tales. Lucinda’s wit, warmth, and skill enrapture listeners, while giving permission to share her stories and create even more storytellers. Librarian, Story Coach, Santa Fe StoryCraft Leader
Me & Billy: Ridin’, Shootin’, & Singin’ with Billy the Kid Ralph Estes ralph@ralphestes.com 1:30 pm – 2:15 pm	Ralph blends humor and song, accompanied by his autoharp, into the “true” history of an iconic legend from the days of the Old West. Ride with America’s favorite outlaw. Like Will Rogers, with music. Ralph is an author, amateur historian, autoharpist and Chautauqua troubadour. He’s also an emeritus professor and author of eight books.
You Can Never Be Sure... Regina Ress storytellerrress@aol.com 2:30 pm – 3:15 pm	Award-winning international teller returns with tales from Brazil, Haiti, Thailand, and Denmark. Folk and fiction genres remind us, “It doesn’t pay to judge a book by its cover, nor a princess by her robes”. Regina’s been on many stages from high security prisons to international festivals, from the Whitehouse to the living room Zoom.
Dona Tulles Barcelo: Queen of Hearts Van Ann Moore vanannsings@gmail.com 3:30 pm – 4:30 pm	Meet Dona Tules, the most colorful, independent, wealthy, and influential woman in New Mexican history during the early 1800’s. She’s hostess to elite parties, and a shrewd and astute business woman. Here’s the Hispanic side of her “rags-to-riches” story. Van Ann Moore is a talented Chautauqua teller. She performs internationally as a singer and actress.

Albuquerque Folk Festival © September 29, 2024 (10 am – 8 pm Sunday)
National Hispanic Cultural Center, 1701 4th St SW, Albuquerque, NM 87102
Go to www.abqfolkfest.org for maps, event schedules, bios, & FAQs. Buy tickets online now at www.NHCC.org.